"Super senior" (was also a senior in 2023-24)

WELCOME TO THE SEC

Under the direction of fourth-year Oklahoma head men's basketball coach Porter Moser, OU embarks on its inaugural season in the Southeastern Conference in 2024-25.

After 28 years in the Big 12 conference, Oklahoma starts a new journey in the Southeastern Conference in 2024-25.

The Sooners return six letter winners from last season's 20-win team, including senior Jalon Moore and super senior Sam Godwin, who each started 31 games. Godwin shot 59.8% (76-127) from the field, ranking seventh in program history for field goal percentage in a single season. Moore earned All-Big 12 Honorable Mention accolades and is OU's returning leader in points (11.1) and rebounds (6.7) per outing. The duo combined for 32.8% of the team's rebounds.

In addition to the two returning starters, OU welcomes back redshirt sophomore Luke Northweather, redshirt junior Yaya Keita, senior Jake Moser and junior Reid Lovelace. Jacolb Fredson-Cole, who redshirted his first year in Norman, will make his Crimson and Cream debut in 2024-25.

The Sooners completed their roster with six transfers and three freshmen. Graduate Kobe Elvis, sixth-year Brycen Goodine, redshirt junior Jeff Nwankwo, graduate Mohamed Wague, graduate Jadon Jones, redshirt senior Duke Miles and senior Glenn Taylor Jr. continue their collegiate careers in Norman, while freshmen Jeremiah Fears, Dayton Forsythe and Kuol Atak join OU from the high school ranks. Fears, originally a class of 2025 prospect, reclassified and joined the Sooners after his junior campaign.

Oklahoma is under the direction of fourth-year head men's basketball coach Porter Moser. Moser compiled a 54-45 (.545) record in three seasons in Norman and a 347-287 (.547) mark in 20 seasons as a head coach.

Assistant coaches Clayton Custer, Armon Gates, Ryan Humphrey and Brock Morris return to the bench, while Josh Oppenheimer (assistant coach) and Ty Terrell (director of strength and conditioning) are newcomers to the staff.

PORTER MOSER

FIVE POSTSEASON APPEARANCES ▪ 2018 NCAA FINAL FOUR
2021 NCAA SWEET SIXTEEN ▪ 12 ALL-CONFERENCE SELECTIONS
TWO AP HONORABLE MENTION ALL-AMERICANS

Praised for his ability to create culture and his never-tiring energy, University of Oklahoma head men's basketball coach Porter Moser enters his fourth season leading the Sooners in 2024-25. Moser was hired on April 3, 2021, becoming the 15th head coach in program history.

In his third season leading the program in 2023-24, Moser guided the Sooners to a 20-12 mark, ranking as high as seventh in the AP Poll. Oklahoma reached 20 regular season wins for the first time since 2015-16 and began the season 10-0, tying the 1991-92 and 2003-04 seasons for the seventh-best start in program history. OU bested Iowa and USC at the Rady Children's Invitational, claiming its second consecutive midseason tournament title. In addition to team success, Javian McCollum and Jalon Moore earned All-Big 12 honorable mention accolades.

Moser completed his second season in Norman in 2022-23, recording four AP Top-25 victories and winning the 2022 ESPN Events Invitational. Tanner Groves became only the second two-time College Sports Communicators (formerly CoSIDA) Academic All-American in program history, receiving third-team honors in 2023 and first-team accolades in 2022. In addition to the Sooners' success in the classroom, Milos Uzan was named to the Big 12 All-Freshman Team. Grant Sherfield and Jalen Hill received All-Big 12 Honorable Mention acclaim.

In 2021-22, Moser led the Sooners to a 19-16 mark and five victories over teams ranked in the top 25 at the time of competition. Oklahoma was selected as a No. 1 seed in the National Invitation Tournament, earning an opening-round victory over Missouri State at Lloyd Noble Center.

Umoja Gibson, Jordan Goldwire, Groves and Elijah Harkless earned All-Big 12 honorable mention honors, and C.J. Noland earned a spot on the Big 12 All-Freshman Team. In addition to the on-court success, Groves was tabbed a Senior CLASS Award Finalist and named to the CoSIDA Academic All-America First Team.

Moser received the keys to the Oklahoma men's basketball program as one of the most successful coaches of the prior half-decade. He has been entrenched in creating and developing team culture at all his stops.

Before his time in Norman, Moser led the Loyola Ramblers to remarkable success during his 10-year run as head coach, including a run to the Final Four in 2018 and Sweet Sixteen in 2021.

He amassed 188 wins (188-141, .571), including five seasons with 20-plus victories. He led Loyola to the postseason every year it was available from 2017-21, winning the 2017 CBI title and qualifying for the 2019 NIT. The 2020 postseason was canceled due to COVID-19.

In addition to his team success, he coached 12 all-conference selections, two Missouri Valley Player of the Year honorees, two Associated Press Honorable Mention All-Americans, two Academic All-Americans, a MVC Defensive Player of the Year, two MVC Sixth Man of the Year honorees and a pair of MVC Freshman of the Year selections.

Moser was one of three coaches in Loyola's history to record 150-plus wins. He guided the 2017-18 squad to a school record 32 victories and an appearance in the Final Four – Loyola's first appearance since winning the 1963 NCAA Championship.

After assembling a 25-5 regular season record (15-3 in MVC play), Moser guided Loyola to seven straight postseason wins, claiming the 2018 Missouri Valley tournament title and making a historic run to the pinnacle event of college basketball as a No. 11 seed.

The Ramblers were just the fourth No. 11 seed to advance to the Final Four, earning wins over Miami, Tennessee, Nevada and Kansas State.

Loyola finished the 2017-18 season ranked No. 7 in the final USA Today Coaches Poll. Moser was named the Missouri Valley Conference (MVC) Coach of the Year and the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) District 16 Coach of the Year.

The 2017-18 squad ranked second in the nation in fewest personal fouls per game (13.9), third in field goal percentage (.507) and sixth in scoring defense (62.6 ppg).

During the 2017-18 season, Rambler guard Clayton Custer was named MVC Player of the Year and earned Associated Press (AP) Honorable Mention All-America honors, becoming the first play in Loyola history to receive both in the same season.

Cameron Krutwig earned MVC Freshman of the Year honors and Ben Richardson was named MVC Defensive Player of the Year. In addition to his on-court success, Custer was named CoSIDA Academic All-District. He is in his fourth year working with the Sooners and second as an assistant coach in 2024-25 after two seasons as the director of video operations and player development from 2021-23

Moser boasts six NCAA Tournament wins from 2018-21 – tied for the seventh most nationally in that time frame. Loyola, Gonzaga and Houston were the only teams outside major conferences to reach two Sweet 16s during the three-year run. In his final season at Loyola, Moser led the Ramblers to a 26-5 record and Missouri Valley Conference regular season and tournament titles in the 2020-21 season. As an eighth seed in the NCAA Tournament, his squad upset No. 1-seed Illinois in the second round to advance to the Sweet 16 for the second time since 2018.

The 2020-21 Rambler squad ranked second in adjusted defensive efficiency (KenPom.com), allowing only 87.0 points per 100 possessions. Loyola's 16-2 record in MVC play set a program record for most wins in conference action.

After 19 wins during the 2014-15 season, the Ramblers earned a bid to the College Basketball Invitational (CBI), advancing to Loyola's first postseason appearance since the 1985 season. Loyola made the most of its chance at postseason play, winning the CBI Championship over Louisiana-Monroe with back-to-back victories in the best-of-three championship series.

HEAD COACH PORTER MOSER

After rebuilding during the 2013-14 season, Moser led the Ramblers to a 24-13 mark next season. The 24 victories were the most by a Moser led team and the most for Loyola since 1985.
In the early stages of building Loyola to a mid-major powerhouse, Moser led the Ramblers to an eight-game improvement in the win column from his first season at the helm to his second in 2012-13. The improvement was the most by a coach from his first year to his second in program history.

Owner of a 347-287 (.547) career record, Moser was hired for his first head coaching job in 2000 at Arkansas-Little Rock. In three seasons with the Trojans, Moser took over a program that went 4-24 during the season before his hiring and went 18-11 just one year later.

The Trojans ranked last in the conference in several defensive categories before his tenure. Moser turned the program around in one season, finishing with the Sun Belt's best field goal percentage defense and second-best scoring defense.

He steered the Trojans to a 54-34 overall record before heading to Illinois State in 2003.
After his 2003-04 squad notched a 10-19 record, Moser improved to 17-13 in 2004-05 despite being picked to finish last in the league in the preseason poll.

Following four years at Illinois State, Moser worked under legendary coach Rick Majerus at Saint Louis as an assistant coach from 2007 through 2011. He returned to a head coaching role by being named Loyola's head coach before the 2011-12 season.

A Chicago area native, Moser grew up in Naperville, Ill. He was a two-year starter at Creighton and helped lead the Jays to the 1989 Missouri Valley Conference title and a berth in the NCAA Tournament. He graduated in 1990 with a degree in business management.

Immediately following his collegiate playing career, Moser began his path in coaching at his alma mater as a graduate assistant. He left Creighton for an assistant coach role at Texas A&M for four seasons followed by a year at Wisconsin-Milwaukee. Moser returned to Texas A&M for two more seasons (1996-98) on the Aggies' bench, then served as an assistant coach at Little Rock for two years before his promotion to head coach.

Moser and his wife, Megan, have four children – Jordan, a former OU's women's basketball player and current member of the staff, Jake, a senior on the men's basketball team, and Max and Ben.

CLAYTON CUSTER

Clayton Custer was named an Oklahoma men's basketball assistant coach on Aug. 23, 2023.

Custer returned to the Sooners after a brief stint as an assistant coach at his alma mater, Loyola Chicago. Before his time on staff at Loyola, Custer spent two seasons as the director of video operations and player development at OU from 2021-23.

Prior to his first stint on staff at OU, Custer spent one season on Moser's staff at Loyola as director of player development in 2020-21. The Ramblers finished the year with a 25-4 record, won the MVC regular season and tournament championships and advanced to the NCAA Tournament's Sweet 16. Loyola knocked off Georgia Tech in the NCAA first round and toppled No. 1 seed Illinois in the second round, finishing the year No. 17 in the AP poll.

Custer starred at Loyola during the 2016-17 through 2018-19 seasons, starting 99 games in his three seasons and helping the program to a 70-34 (.673) mark.

He was named Missouri Valley Conference Player of the Year as a redshirt junior in 2017-18 and started all 33 games on the Ramblers' run to the Final Four as a No. 11 seed.

Loyola finished the season 32-6 and made the Final Four for the first time since 1963. Custer earned honorable mention AP All-American accolades and averaged 13.2 points, 2.2 rebounds, 4.1 assists and 1.5 steals per outing while shooting 45.1% (60-133) from 3-point range.

He was named a third-team Academic All-American and a third-team All-MVC selection as a redshirt senior in 2018-19. Custer won the men's 3-point title at the State Farm College Slam Dunk and 3-Point Championships at the Final Four in Minneapolis to conclude his collegiate career.

Before he joined Loyola, Custer appeared in 12 games as a freshman at Iowa State during the 2014-15 season.

He prepped at Blue Valley Northwest High School in Overland Park, Kan., earning three first-team Class 6-A All-State honors and securing a No. 92 national recruit ranking by Rivals.

Following his collegiate playing career, Custer played professionally for part of the 2019-20 season in Poland.

ARMON GATES

Armon Gates joined the Oklahoma men's basketball staff as an assistant coach on April 18, 2023.

No stranger to head coach Porter Moser and members of the Sooner staff, Gates spent two seasons as an assistant coach at Loyola Chicago under Moser (2011-13) and worked with OU assistant coach Ryan Humphrey and director of operations Tad Glibert at Northwestern.

Prior to joining the Sooners, Gates was an assistant at Oregon under Dana Altman for the 2022-23 season. The Ducks finished 21-15 and were one of the final eight teams in the NIT.

Gates, from Chicago, spent four seasons (2019-22) as an assistant coach at Nebraska. He was instrumental in developing Dalano Banton and Cam Mack. Banton was selected in the second round of the 2021 NBA Draft and was only the second player in program history to notch a triple-double. Gates tutored Mack to 2019-20 All-Big Ten honors. Mack finished third on Nebraska's single-season assist chart.

Prior to his time with the Huskers, Gates was a member of Chris Collins' staff at Northwestern for five seasons (2013-18). Gates helped the Wildcats tally a pair of 20-win seasons and reach the NCAA Tournament for the first time in program history in 2017.

The Wildcats recorded a top-30 recruiting class in 2014 and the 24th-ranked class by 247Sports in 2018. Gates coached All-Big Ten performers Bryant McIntosh, Vic Law, Scottie Lindsey, Tre Demps and Drew Crawford. McIntosh finished fifth on the Big Ten's career assist list.

As the newly appointed head coach of Loyola Chicago in 2011, Moser hired Gates as an assistant coach. Gates spent two seasons with the Ramblers and helped Ben Averkamp to All-Horizon League honors. Averkamp was the first Loyola player in five seasons to earn first- or second-team all-conference recognition.

During the 2010-11 season, Gates served as an assistant coach at TCU and developed Hank Thorns, who earned third-team All-Mountain West Conference accolades. Thorns ranked fourth nationally in assists per game (7.0) and 12th in assist-to-turnover ratio (2.7). His 225 assists were the second highest total in a single season in Mountain West history.

Gates also served two seasons (2008-10) as an assistant coach at his alma mater, Kent State. The Golden Flashes won the 2009-10 Mid-American Conference regular season title.

As a player for the Golden Flashes, Gates helped the program to an 88-42 record, four consecutive 20-win seasons and a trio of postseason appearances. At the conclusion of his playing days, he ranked second in school history with 200 3-point field goals.

Gates graduated from Kent State in 2005 with a degree in leisure studies and obtained his master's degree in sports administration in 2007. He played prep ball at Hillcrest High School and spent one season at Brewster (N.H.) Academy.

Gates and his wife Ashley have two daughters (Gaida and Milan) and two sons (Kaiere and Blaze). Gates' older brother, Dennis, is the University of Missouri head men's basketball coach.

2014-16: Northwestern
Director of Player Development

Ryan Humphrey joined the Oklahoma men's basketball staff as an assistant coach on July 1, 2022.

Humphrey started his collegiate playing career with OU in 1997-98 after he was a McDonald's All-American at Booker T. Washington High School in Tulsa.

Humphrey returned to Norman following a six-year stint as an assistant coach at Notre Dame.

In his first season with the Fighting Irish, Humphrey was instrumental in the development of All-American and All-ACC forward Bonzie Colson. Colson averaged a double-double (points and rebounds) in 2016-17 and tallied career highs in points, rebounds and blocked shots under Humphrey's tutelage.

In 2018-19, he aided in the growth of John Mooney, who led the ACC in rebounds. Mooney earned third-team all-conference honors and posted 13 double-doubles in league play, the most since Wake Forest's Tim Duncan tallied 15 during the 1996-97 ACC campaign.

Mooney's progression didn't stop following his stellar junior campaign. With Humphrey on the bench, Mooney led the nation in double-doubles (25) and finished second overall and first among Power Five conference players in rebounds per game (12.7).

Prior to his time in South Bend, Humphrey served as the director of player development at Northwestern for two seasons. He started with the Wildcats in November 2014 after a stellar professional career.

Humphrey started his playing career with the Sooners and was named a third-team All-Big 12 selection as a sophomore in 1998-99. He appeared in 63 games in the Crimson and Cream and made 54 starts, averaging 10.1 points, 7.0 rebounds and 1.9 blocks per game.

In Humphrey's final season at Oklahoma, the Sooners reached the Sweet 16. His tip-in with 21 seconds left against No. 4-seeded Arizona propelled No. 13-seeded OU to the second round of the NCAA Tournament. It was the first NCAA Tournament win for the Sooners in nine years.

The Tulsa native transferred to Notre Dame and finished his career with the Fighting Irish. He was named a 2002 Basketball News Second-Team All-American and All-BIG EAST First Team honoree.

In his two years at Notre Dame, Humphrey tallied 166 blocks and set a program record for blocks per game (2.8). He finished his senior season with 87 rejections to set the single-season school standard.

During his final season, Humphrey was named a captain and averaged 18.9 points, 10.9 rebounds and 2.8 blocks per game. He finished the season with 11 straight double-doubles and led the Irish to the second round of the NCAA Tournament.

Humphrey was the 19th selection in the 2002 NBA Draft by the Utah Jazz. He was traded to the Orlando Magic on draft night and appeared in 13 games in his first season. Humphrey was traded to the Memphis Grizzlies prior to the 2004-05 season and appeared in 85 career NBA games. He averaged 2.3 points and 2.2 rebounds per contest.

He continued his career on the international scene and played in Italy, Spain, Puerto Rico, Cyprus, Uruguay, Argentina and Venezuela. Humphrey concluded his 'Euro League' career with 127 games played, 1,644 points (12.9 per game) and 778 rebounds (6.1 per game).

Humphrey also played for his hometown NBA D-League 66ers in 2008-09 and averaged 15.7 points and 7.4 rebounds per game.

Humphrey and his wife, RaSheda, have two sons, Ryan and Rylan.

JOSH OPPENHEIMER

Josh Oppenheimer joined the Oklahoma men's basketball staff as an assistant coach on Sept. 5, 2024.

Oppenheimer brings 15-plus years of NBA and NCAA DI experience to the program, including time with the Milwaukee Bucks, Brooklyn Nets and Houston Rockets.

Oppenheimer most recently finished his second stint with the Bucks, serving as an assistant coach and aiding the team to the 2021 NBA championship and four Central Division titles. During his time in Milwaukee, he was responsible for player development and on-court coaching, including significant time dedicated to the development and maintenance of NBA All-Star and 2021 NBA Finals MVP Giannis Antetokounmpo, who finished second in the league in points per game twice during Oppenheimer's four-year run with the Bucks. In 2023-24, Antetokounmpo averaged 30.4 points, 11.5 rebounds and 6.5 assists in the regular season, finishing with 57 double-doubles and 10 triple-doubles in 73 regular season starts.

In 2022, Oppenheimer served as an assistant coach for the Greek men's national team for EuroBasket. Antetokounmpo, who Oppenheimer directly assisted in the preparation, finished as the top scorer at the tournament.

Before his second campaign with Milwaukee, Oppenheimer served as an assistant coach at James Madison in 2019-20, developing All-CAA guard Matt Lewis and 1,000-point scorer Darius Burks.

He spent one season as an assistant coach for the Brooklyn Nets (2017-18) and Houston Rockets (2016-17) after his first stint with the Bucks, spending three seasons as an assistant coach.

Before his start in the NBA, Oppenheimer founded Excel Basketball in 2008, running the company for five years. He developed and conducted daily shooting, skill and conditioning workouts for NBA, WNBA, European and college basketball players, including Russell Westbrook, Paul George, Luol Deng, Joakim Noah and Ben Gordon.

While running Excel Basketball, he was the lead clinician at Nike Skills Academy for Girls (2009-14) and a player development and pre-draft skills trainer for Priority Sports & Entertainment (2008-13). Oppenheimer also worked with Deng and Gordon as a personal player development coach.

From 2005-07, he was the associate head coach at Kent State, helping guide the Golden Flashes to the 2006 MAC regular season and tournament championships and an appearance in the NCAA Tournament. Oppenheimer developed Deandre Haynes and Jay Youngblood, who earned MAC Player of the Year and First Team All-MAC accolades, respectively. Oklahoma assistant coach Armon Gates played at KSU for two seasons under Oppenheimer's tutelage.

Before his time with the Golden Flashes, he spent three seasons (2002-05) as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at DePaul, helping the Blue Demons earn three postseason appearances and the 2004 Conference USA regular season championship.

From 2000-02, Oppenheimer was an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Delaware, and he started his collegiate career at Duquesne, serving as an assistant coach for the 1999-2000 season.

Oppenheimer played collegiately at Northern Arizona (1989-91) and Rhode Island (1987-89). He played professionally in the USBL, NBA Summer League, CBA, Israel Premier Basketball League, Polish Premier League, EuroLeague and on the United States Select Team.

Director of Operations
2008-10: Alabama
Graduate Assistant

Brock Morris joined the staff as the director of player personnel and assistant coach on July 1, 2023, and transitioned to assistant coach before the 2024-25 season.

Morris came to Norman with 10-plus years of coaching and recruiting experience. Morris aided in the development of seven All-Americans, 26 all-conference honorees, 18 all-tournament team selections, three conference players of the year, two conference tournament MVPs and one NBA Draft lottery pick, Elfrid Payton.

Morris joined the Sooners after one season as an Ole Miss assistant coach. He helped the Rebels land the No. 12 ranked 2022 recruiting class via ESPN and was instrumental in building a top-25 2023 class.

Prior to his year in Oxford, he spent three seasons as an assistant coach at Louisiana (2019-22) where he was responsible for player development, scouting and recruiting. As the program's acting head coach, he compiled a 4-0 record in two-game stints in 2020-21 and 2021-22.

As a recruiter for the Ragin' Cajuns, Morris was instrumental in helping Louisiana sign its highest-ranked recruiting class in program history. During his time in Lafayette, UL signed two ESPN four-star prospects, one ESPN 100 recruit, three ESPN 100 transfers, a junior college All-American, three JUCO top-100 players and a McDonald's All-American.

In 2021-22, the Ragin' Cajuns played for the Sun Belt Tournament championship, making its first title game appearance since 2014. UL posted a 17-9 SBC record and finished second in the West Division behind league champion Texas State. With recruits from Morris' time in Lafayette, the Cajuns won the 2023 Sun Belt Conference Championship, marking their second finals appearance in as many seasons.

During Morris' tenure with the Cajuns, seven players earned either all-conference or all-tournament team honors. Theo Akwuba was named the 2020-21 Sun Belt Defensive Player of the Year, a Lefty Driesell National Defensive Player of the Year nominee and a Lefty Driesell Defensive All-American. He aided in the development and recruitment of the 2020 SBC Freshman of the Year and the 2023 Lou Henson National Player of the Year.

Morris spent the 2018-19 season as the Daytona State College head men's basketball coach, leading the Falcons to a 25-7 mark and a Mid-Florida Conference Tournament title. DSC spent 16 weeks in the JUCO top-25 rankings.

The Falcons averaged 87.0 points per outing and led Region 8 in 3-pointers made (317) and assists per contest (20.7). In addition to its offensive prowess, Daytona State dominated defensively, ranking first in the conference in field goal percentage defense, blocks, rebounding margin and turnovers forced.

Four Falcons earned Division I scholarships under his leadership, and Morris coached the 2019 Mid-Florida Conference Player of the Year.

Prior to his stint at DSC, Morris spent three seasons as an assistant coach at South Alabama and was primarily responsible for the defense. The Jaguars secured their top-ranked recruiting class in the Sun Belt in his second season on staff and ranked in the top-20 in points allowed per game.

South Alabama ranked sixth in the nation in 3-point field goal defense (.305) and 24th in field goal percentage defense (.407) in 2017-18. The Jaguars tied their best start in school history in 2016-17, posting a 5-0 mark and earning a season-opening win at UNLV. They led the conference in turnovers forced per game (16.3), turnover margin (3.2) and steals per outing (7.5).

Before joining the Jaguars, Morris spent two seasons as a junior college assistant coach at College of Southern Idaho. In his two seasons on the sidelines, the Golden Eagles finished 58-8 overall and 27-5 in Scene West Athletic Conference play. CSI won league titles and made appearances in the national tournament both years.

In 2014-15, Southern Idaho won the conference regular season title and the Region 18 Tournament championship. CSI finished with a 31-3 overall mark and 13-2 in conference action. The Golden Eagles averaged 90-plus points per game and held opponents to 68 points per outing.

In his first season on staff in 2013-14, CSI won the regular season title with a 13-4 conference mark and finished 27-5 overall. In his two seasons at Southern Idaho, 18 players signed Division I scholarships.

Prior to his time at CSI, Morris was the director of operations at Louisiana for three seasons (2010-13) and served two seasons as a graduate assistant at Alabama (2008-10).

Morris played collegiately at Snead State. He earned his bachelor's degree in history in 2008 and master's degree in human environmental sciences in 2010, both from Alabama.

Morris and his wife Amanda have two sons, Macksen and Graysen.

Seth Tisdale is in his third season working with the Oklahoma men's basketball team as an athletic trainer in 2023-24.

Tisdale spent four years as the associate athletic trainer at Mississippi State and worked with its men's basketball and men's golf programs.

During his tenure in Starkville, Miss., the Bulldogs went to the 2019 NCAA Tournament and the 2021 NIT Championship game.

Tisdale previously served as assistant athletic trainer at St. Bonaventure from 2016-18. He worked with the men's basketball team and helped revolutionize the sports medicine department. The Bonnies posted 20-plus victories in back-to-back seasons, highlighted by a 26-8 mark in 2017-18 and a win over UCLA in the First Four.

Prior to his time in New York, Tisdale was an assistant athletic trainer at Stetson. He worked with the men's basketball and rowing programs during the 2015-16 athletic year.

Tisdale started his career at VCU and worked with the women's basketball and volleyball teams during the 2014-15 season. He aided in institutional drug testing and helped the VCU men's basketball team.

Tisdale graduated with his bachelor of science degree in athletic training from High Point in 2012 and earned his master of science degree in kinesiology from Stephen F. Austin in 2014.

While earning his undergraduate degree, Tisdale worked with the High Point men's basketball and women's lacrosse teams. He also spent time with the Elon football team.

At Stephen F. Austin, he worked with football, softball, volleyball and women's tennis. Tisdale was a clinical preceptor for the graduate athletic training program and assisted with institutional drug testing.

In addition to being a certified athletic trainer, Tisdale is an instructor in First Aid/CPR/AED and Professional Rescuer courses with the American Red Cross. He also is a NASM Corrective Exercise Specialist, certified in FMS level 1 screen and is an authorized provider of the Graston Technique. Tisdale is an active member of both the NATA and CATS organizations.

Tisdale and his wife, Nicole, reside in Norman and have one son, Luke.

UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT

JOSEPH HARROZ JR.

Serving the University of Oklahoma for over 28 years in various leadership roles, Joseph Harroz Jr. was named the 15th president of OU on May 9, 2020. Harroz's previous service to the university includes a one-year term as interim president, nine years as dean of the College of Law, 12 years as general counsel, and two years as vice president for executive affairs.

Under Harroz's leadership, over the last four years the university has ambitiously pursued the fulfillment of its "Lead On, University" Strategic Plan, sparking a new era of excellence and elevating OU's position as a top-tier public research university with life-changing impact.

The last three years have seen record-breaking freshman classes at OU, with the fall 2024 incoming class on track to become OU's largest yet. Last fall's incoming class of nearly 5,200 students represented an 11% increase over the previous year, and the class broke other university records, with the largest percentage of first-generation students and more underserved students than any other year. OU's research momentum continues to accelerate, reaching a record $386 million in externally funded research awarded across the university. The OU research enterprise has achieved an average 16% annual growth rate over the last four years and ranks among the top 8% of research universities nationally. The historic merger in 2021 to create OU Health has brought immense benefits to the state and its people. As Oklahoma's first comprehensive academic health system, OU Health is delivering world-class health care, training tomorrow's health professionals, and meeting the toughest medical challenges with pioneering research and innovation.

An abundance of other successes have come to life since the Strategic Plan's introduction — the announcement of a historic $2 billion fundraising campaign, a continued focus on balancing excellence with affordability, the addition of premier freshman housing, entering the SEC, and more.

A native Oklahoman, Harroz graduated Phi Beta Kappa from OU in 1989 with a Bachelor of Arts degree in economics and a minor in zoology. He earned his J.D. in 1992 from Georgetown University Law Center.

VICE PRESIDENT FOR INTERCOLLEGIATE ATHLETICS PROGRAMS AND DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS
27th Year at Oklahoma

JOE CASTIGLIONE

Few collegiate athletics administrators have experienced the long-term success that Joe Castiglione has enjoyed at the University of Oklahoma.

In his 27th year at the helm of the legendary program, he leads an OU Athletics Department that hardly resembles the one that welcomed him in July of 1998. From conference realignment — now in the Southeastern Conference after 28 years in the Big 12 — to fundraising records and significant growth in capital projects, Castiglione has shaped and stewarded the department's widespread and longstanding success. In fact, the Sooners have won 25 of their 44 team national championships since he arrived in Norman. He has celebrated 113 conference titles in that same period.

By creating a positive culture based on core values, a dynamic vision and a collaborative spirit, Castiglione has made OU Athletics a "destination of choice" and a world-class experience for student-athlete development.

Of course, Oklahoma is not immune to any of the challenges intercollegiate athletics has faced in the past quarter century, and through it all, Castiglione has stood unwavering in his commitment to position OU Athletics as one of the nation's premier programs. For many, it was his response to the COVID-19 pandemic that demonstrated the leader he really is.

As the pandemic arrived, then continued to worsen, Castiglione led the department through the sudden ending of the academics and athletics year with a calm and determined approach. His leadership gave OU's student-athletes, coaches and staff ample reasons to be confident the Sooners would get through the challenges that awaited. Their confidence was warranted.

After an incredibly successful 2022-23 athletics campaign, the 2023-24 academic year yielded OU's eighth softball national championship, including an unprecedented fourth straight and sixth in the last eight seasons. Women's gymnastics, which was ranked No. 1 the entire regular season and set the NCAA single-meet scoring record, won its 11th conference title in the last 12 years, while women's basketball secured its eighth regular season league crown (second consecutive) and baseball won its first-ever regular season Big 12 championship.

The Learfield Director's Cup recognizes overall program excellence. The Sooners have ranked among the top 25 in 21 of Castiglione's 26 years and finished 10th in 2021-22, their best showing since 2012-13. (With the interruption of competition schedules, the Learfield Director's Cup was not awarded for 2019-20.)

Individually, OU student-athletes during Castiglione's tenure have flourished, producing countless all-conference, All-America and national-player-of-the-year honors, including Heisman Trophy winners Jason White, Sam Bradford, Baker Mayfield and Kyler Murray, Naismith and Wooden Award winners Blake Griffin and Buddy Hield, and USA Softball Collegiate Players of the Year Keilani Ricketts and Jocelyn Alo (twice each). Alo is the NCAA's all-time record holder in home runs. Sooners were named Big 12 Athlete of the Year 15 times in the 28-year history of the league, including 11 times over the past 12 years.

GPA numbers and graduation rates continue to set program records under Castiglione's watch. OU's standard-setting 3.27 cumulative 2024 spring semester GPA marked the 25th consecutive term that OU's student-athletes as a group recorded a 3.0 or better figure. And the latest graduation success rate report (2023-24) reflects an OU-record-tying 89% figure.

OU Athletics, one of the few remaining self-sustaining departments nationally, has been a model of fiscal responsibility, closing the books in the black in each of Castiglione's first 22 years, including the pandemic-shortened 2019-20 season, and again in 2021-22, 2022-23 and 2023-24. His responsible approach has benefited the general campus. Through direct and indirect support, the athletics department provides millions of dollars annually to OU's academic budget. It also established an endowment at Bizzell Library and partnered with the president's office to eliminate the admission fee at OU's internationally known Fred Jones Jr. Museum of Art.

Athletics facilities improvement and construction have been carried out at a record pace and Castiglione takes pride in the fact that the majority of those improvements have been funded with private donations. He was instrumental in the athletics department's major campaign at the turn of the century, Great Expectations: The Campaign for Sooner Sports, that impacted each of OU's athletics programs and became a national model. During the 2021-22 fiscal year, OU Athletics received a then-record-breaking $109 million in donations and pledges (the previous single-year record was $58 million), and followed in 2022-23 with its second-highest figure in school history ($79 million). The 2023-24 fiscal year resulted in another fundraising record, as the Sooners secured $110.3 million in total donations and pledges.

A $160 million Gaylord Family — Oklahoma Memorial Stadium renovation was completed prior to the 2017 season and included enclosure of the south end zone, new seating options for Sooner fans and new team facilities. The Griffin Family Performance Center for men's and women's basketball at Lloyd Noble Center opened in 2018. Refurbished men's and women's basketball team areas and construction on a new softball stadium — Love's Field — were completed in spring 2024.

THE CASTIGLIONE FAMILY

Other projects underway include new team facilities for golf, gymnastics and tennis, with major renovations planned for baseball. The $75 million Headington Hall provides housing for the general student population as well as student-athletes and is recognized as making OU the leader in providing an engaging community living option for students. The state-of-the-art building opened in August 2013 and has won the President's Trophy as the outstanding housing unit on campus five times.

In 2021, Castiglione recommended to the OU President and Board of Regents that the university seek membership in the Southeastern Conference for an eventual 2025 move. Castiglione, who played a large role in the formation of the Big 12, ensured OU fulfilled its obligations to the league, which the Sooners joined in 1996. After negotiating an agreeable earlier exit from the Big 12, OU entered the SEC officially on July 1, 2024, after 28 years in the Big 12. The decision arguably set in motion a series of conference realignments that followed throughout the then-Power Five conferences. Membership in the SEC for OU, according to Castiglione, was always about seizing future stability for the university at a time of great disruption within intercollegiate athletics.

Castiglione was named Co-National Athletic Director of the Year in May 2018 by Sports Business Journal. He had won the award in 2009 and been a finalist in 2016. A survey conducted by Sports Illustrated in the summer of 2017 named him the best athletics director in the country, and Stadium selected him in 2020 as the nation's top AD. Other awards and honors include the 2023 LEAD1 Association Pearl Award of Excellence, 2018 Katha Quinn Award (U.S. Basketball Writers of America); 2018 induction into the Oklahoma Sports Hall of Fame; the 2013 John L. Toner Award (National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame); Carl Maddox Sports Management Award (United States Sports Academy); 2000 and 2018 Athletics Director of the Year (NACDA); 2004 Athletics Director of the Year (Bobby Dodd Foundation); 2003 induction into the National Association of Collegiate Marketing Administrators Hall of Fame; and the 2001 General Robert R. Neyland Athletic Director Award for lifetime achievement (All-American Football Foundation).

He earned a master's of education degree in May 2007 and became an adjunct professor in OU's Jeannine Rainbolt College of Education, teaching graduate classes in marketing, development and leadership in higher education. He serves on the college's board of advocates and received the "Award of Distinction" given by the college in 2019. He was recognized for his distinguished service by OU's College of Arts and Sciences and was named a Price College Distinguished Partner in 2018.

Hired on April 30, 1998, Castiglione previously served as athletics director at Missouri for five years. His career began as the sports promotions director at Rice. Other stops included director of athletic fundraising at Georgetown, then director of communications and marketing at Missouri. He marks his 32nd year of serving student-athletes as an athletics director with the 2024-25 academic year.

A 1979 Maryland graduate, Castiglione received the university's Distinguished Alumnus Award in April 2007 and was inducted into the State of Missouri's Sports Hall of Fame in November 2015.

He completed a term on the College Football Playoff Committee in January 2021, making him the only person in history to serve on that committee as well as the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball and Baseball committees. He has served on multiple NCAA committees and commissions, including the NCAA's Board of Governor's Commission to Combat Sexual Violence on Campus, NCAA Championship/Competition Cabinet, the NCAA Division I Women's Basketball Discussion Group and the United States Olympic Committee Athlete Career and Education Strategic Working Group. He formerly served on the Gatorade Collegiate Advisory Board and continues to serve on the National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame Board of Directors.

Castiglione is a past president of both the Division I-A Athletic Directors Association and NACDA. He also served three terms as the chair of the Big 12 Board of Athletics Directors. A former member of the Phi Delta Theta Foundation Board of Trustees, he is a highly requested speaker at annual conventions and continuing education institutes. In November 2011, his hometown recognized him by selecting him for the Broward County (Fla.) Sports Hall of Fame.

Locally, he has served the United Way of Norman, among other organizations. His third term as OU's campus co-chair resulted in the highest recorded contributions ever by faculty, staff and students to the United Way of Norman's annual campaign. He encourages student-athletes and athletics staff to engage in those efforts as well, with OU Athletics representatives having been known to participate in more than 5,000 hours of community service per year.

A native of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., Castiglione is married to the former Kristen Bartel, a 1990 graduate of the University of Missouri. They are the parents of two sons, Joseph Jr., who earned a Bachelor of Business Administration degree and a master's degree from Oklahoma in 2019 and 2021, respectively, and Jonathan, who graduated from OU in 2023 with a bachelor's degree in journalism (creative media production).

VISION: To be the preferred destination for student-athletes, staff and fans to pursue championships in sport and in life.

MISSION: Through developing leaders and inspiring champions, we create Sooner MAGIC.

CORE VALUES: SOONER M.A.G.I.C.: Masterful Accountable Gracious Inclusive Competitive

PHILOSOPHY: The University of Oklahoma Department of Athletics promotes excellence in athletics without compromising excellence in academics or integrity in its commitment to rules or conduct. Student-athletes are encouraged by the coaching and administrative staff to maintain a balance between athletics, academics, and the social aspects of college.

It is believed that athletic participation gives an added dimension to the student's overall college experience and provides an opportunity for social, moral, emotional, and cultural growth and development.

The athletic programs strive to create traits that once acquired will carry over and benefit student-athletes in their personal and professional endeavors. OU maintains a tradition of excellence in intercollegiate athletics.

The Department of Athletics continues to uphold this tradition by striving to make each athletic team and individual of championship caliber. Its staff members work to instill in student-athletes an appreciation for hard work, perseverance, and pride in accomplishment. It is believed these attributes will be utilized throughout the student-athlete's life.

'23-24 SEASON REWIND

Oklahoma ranked as high as No. 7 in the AP Top 25, won the Rady Children's Invitational and collected 20 regular season victories in its final season in the Big 12.

SEASON REVIEW

In a season of ups and downs, Oklahoma compiled a 20-12 mark in 2023-24 and finished its final year in the Big 12 with an 8-10 record.

The Sooners won their first 10 contests, including two victories at the Rady Children's Invitational against Iowa and USC. With OU's wins in San Diego, it claimed its second midseason tournament title and improved to 7-1 in such games under Oklahoma head men's basketball coach Porter Moser.

After completing its non-conference slate 11-1 with additional victories over Providence in the BIG EAST-Big 12 Battle and Arkansas in the Crimson & Cardinal Classic, OU embarked on its final conference campaign in the Big 12.

The Sooners started their conference slate with a dominant victory over Iowa State at home before consecutive losses at TCU and Kansas. OU rebounded with back-to-back wins against West Virginia and Cincinnati, improving to 3-2 in league action.

After setbacks against Texas and Texas Tech at Lloyd Noble Center, OU trounced Kansas State in Manhattan, earning a 20-point victory against the Wildcats and limiting K-State to 19 first-half points. The Sooners earned their third 20-plus point victory in program history against Kansas State in Manhattan. OU beat Kansas State 117-76 in 1992 and 50-30 in 1947.

Oklahoma lost its meeting against conference newcomer UCF in Orlando and responded with home victories against BYU and Oklahoma State.

The Sooners lost consecutive clashes against Baylor in Waco and Kansas at LNC before a thrilling overtime victory against Oklahoma State in Stillwater, securing the Bedlam sweep.

OU lost three of its final four regular season outings but secured a senior night victory against Cincinnati at Lloyd Noble Center.

The Sooner's 2023-24 campaign ended against TCU in the 2024 Phillips 66 Big 12 Championship.

BIG 12 HONORS

▪ Juniors Javian McCollum and Jalon Moore earned All-Big 12 Honorable Mention accolades. McCollum averaged a team-high 13.3 points per game and shot 40.4% (132-327) from the field. The Fort Myer, Fla., product made 31.4% (54-172) of his shots behind the arc and tallied a team-high 54 3-pointers, including a team-best five threes against Central Arkansas and TCU.

▪ Moore averaged 11.0 points per outing and team highs in rebounds (6.6) and blocks (1.1) per game. The Birmingham, Ala., product led the Sooners on the glass on 13 occasions and boasted a team-best three double-doubles, ranking third in the conference in Big 12 play. In league competition, he finished third in rebounds per outing (7.5). Moore's 14-rebound performance at Oklahoma State was the most boards by a Sooner in 2023-24 and tied for the most rebounds in a game in the Porter Moser era. Against OSU in Norman, Moore swatted four shots, marking the most by a Sooner last season. On the offensive end, he shot 52.2% (117-224) from the field and 41.4% (24-58) from deep. Moore's 23-point performance at K-State tied for the most points in a single game in 2023-24.

RADY CHILDREN'S INVITATIONAL

▪ Oklahoma won the 2023 Rady Children's Invitational with victories against Iowa on Thursday, Nov. 23 and then-No. 23/RV USC on Friday, Nov. 24. OU's tournament victory in San Diego, Calif., marked back-to-back season the Sooners won their midseason event. Oklahoma won the 2022 ESPN Events Invitational, beating Nebraska, Seton Hall and Ole Miss.

▪ Junior Javian McCollum was named Rady Children's Invitational Tournament MVP, averaging 16.0 points, 3.0 assists and 1.5 rebounds per contest. Sophomore Otega Oweh joined McCollum on the all-tournament team, finishing with 14.5 points, 4.0 rebounds and 2.5 steals per contest. Redshirt junior John Hugley IV and junior Jalon Moore each averaged 11.0 points per outing over the two-game tournament and sophomore Milos Uzan dished out a team-best 6.5 assists per contest.

WIN BIG

▪ Oklahoma earned 11 victories by 16-plus points in 2023-24. Last season's Sooners were the first to reach 11 such victories since 2014-15.

FINAL BIG 12 SEASON

▪ The 2023-24 season marked the final campaign in the Big 12 for the Sooners. In 28 years on the hardwood, Oklahoma amassed a 258-214 (.548) mark in conference competition. The Sooners had 11 players receive 14 first-team all-conference honors. Hollis Price (2003), Blake Griffin (2009) and Buddy Hield (2015, 2016) were named Big 12 Player of the Year. Willie Warren (2009) and Trae Young (2018) were named Big 12 Freshman of the Year, while Corey Brewer (1997), Ebi Ere (2002), Taj Gray (2005), Michael Neal (2006) and TaShawn Thomas (2015) were selected as Big 12 Newcomer of the Year.

IN THE HISTORY BOOKS

▪ Junior Javian McCollum made 94.3% (82-87) of his free throw attempts in 2023-24, ranking first ahead of Hollis Price's 92.9% set in 2003. Senior Sam Godwin made 59.8% (76-126) of his shots, ranking seventh in program history for a single season.

▪ After missing his first free throw attempt at Kansas State (Jan. 30) with 5:39 left in the first half, McCollum buried nine consecutive tries and finished 9 for 10 from the charity stripe. The Fort Myers, Fla., product rattled off 39 consecutive free throws over a nine-game stretch, eclipsing the previous program record of 37 consecutive free throws made by Nate Carter in 2007. Carter topped the previous record of 36 set by Hollis Price during the 2002-03 season. Colorado's Corey Higgins set the Big 12 record (45) during the 2008-09 campaign.

SAM GODWIN

UNDEFEATED START

▪ With Oklahoma's victory against Providence in the BIG EAST-Big 12 Battle, OU head men's basketball coach Porter Moser achieved his first 8-0 start as a head coach. During the 2017-18 Final Four campaign at Loyola-Chicago, Moser guided the Ramblers to a 7-0 mark before dropping its first game of the season at Boise State.

▪ With its victory over Green Bay, OU improved to 10-0 for the first time since the 2015-16 Final Four campaign. In the previous 20 seasons, the Sooners won their first 10 games three times (2008-09, 2015-16 and 2023-24).

▪ OU's 10-0 start tied the 1991-92 and 2003-04 seasons for the seventh-best start in program history.

EFFICIENCY IS KEY

▪ Under Porter Moser, Oklahoma has amassed a 31-3 record when shooting 50% or better from the field. OU finished the 2023-24 campaign 8-1 when reaching the 50% field goal mark, including wins against USC (50.0%) and Arkansas (51.0%). The Sooners were 9-1 in 2022-23 and 14-1 in 2021-22.

CLASSROOM CHAMPIONS

▪ Junior Jake Moser and redshirt freshman Luke Northweather were named to the 2024 Winter Academic All-Big 12 Team, while senior Sam Godwin earned second-team honors.

WIN TOTALS

▪ With Oklahoma's victory over Cincinnati, it reached 20 wins in the regular season for the first time since the 2015-16 campaign. The 2016 Final Four squad posted a 24-5 regular season mark. Porter Moser has guided six teams to 20-plus wins in his career.

▪ In addition to reaching 20 wins in the regular season, OU claimed its 14th home victory of the season against the Bearcats, reaching 14 wins in Norman for the first time since the 2015-16 slate.

OKLAHOMA IN THE POLLS

▪ The Sooners opened the 2023-24 campaign unranked with no votes and broke into the AP Top 25 poll on Nov. 27, ranking 25th. Oklahoma skyrocketed through the polls, reaching as high as No. 7 on Jan. 8. OU spent 11 weeks in the AP Top 25 and received its highest ranking since week 14 of the poll during the 2020-21 season.

▪ Oklahoma has appeared in the AP Poll 386 times (30.3%), ranking 22nd all-time. Since the 1984 season, the Sooners have appeared in 48.6% (366 times) of AP Polls with an average rank of 12.2.

OKLAHOMA IS 78-29 AT LLOYD NOBLE CENTER SINCE 2017

HOME COURT ADVANTAGE

It's known as the house Alvan Adams built and Wayman Tisdale filled. It's also where Billy Tubbs resurrected Oklahoma basketball, where Kelvin Sampson kept it flying high and where Blake Griffin, Buddy Hield and Trae Young assembled some of the greatest seasons in program history.

Under Tubbs, Oklahoma amassed a stellar 195-28 (.874) record inside Lloyd Noble Center. During a seven-year stretch from the 1983-84 through 1989-90 seasons, the Sooners went a combined 108-2 (.982) inside the building with five undefeated campaigns.

The home court advantage has continued, as evidenced by the fact that the Sooners have won 496 of their last 586 home encounters at LNC, good for a remarkable .846 winning percentage. Included in the stretch was a school-record 51-game winning streak (ended in 1990-91). The Sooners also recorded a Big 12 Conference-record 37-game home court winning streak (ended in 2003) and enter the 2024-25 campaign as winners in 167 of their last 178 non-conference games at LNC.

82 OKLAHOMA'S LLOYD NOBLE CENTER WINNING PERCENTAGE OF .826 (611-129) SINCE THE BUILDING OPENED IN 1975

51 OU'S LONGEST LNC WINNING STREAK (51 GAMES) WAS ASSEMBLED IN THE LATE 1980S

167 THE NUMBER OF TIMES OU HAS WON IN ITS LAST 178 HOME NON-CONFERENCE GAMES IN NORMAN

519 THE NUMBER OF VICTORIES FOR THE SOONERS IN THEIR LAST 620 HOME GAMES, GOOD FOR A .837 WINNING PERCENTAGE

The Sooners have gone 129-37 (.777) at home in the past nine years, including a 28-2 (.933) run in 2014-15 and 2015-16. Under the direction of Porter Moser, Oklahoma has 34 victories at Lloyd Noble Center in the previous three seasons.

Since its dedication in 1975, more than six million fans have passed through the Lloyd Noble Center doors expecting an Oklahoma victory.

BRIDGESTONE ARENA

12-9 Overall Record
1-1 NCAA Tournament Record
Coached by Bruce Drake

The 1938-39 Sooners were led by rookie head coach Bruce Drake, so it seems only fitting that Oklahoma advanced to the national semifinals in the first ever NCAA Tournament. Drake coached the Sooners to a share of the Big Six Conference regular season crown with a 7-3 league record. One of eight teams to qualify for the NCAA Tournament, OU downed Utah State in the Western Regional semifinals by a 50-39 score. All-American Jimmy McNatt and the Sooners couldn't get past eventual national champion Oregon in the regional final, however, and bowed out of the tournament with a 55-37 defeat. The Ducks went on to beat Ohio State in the title game, 46-33, in Evanston, Ill. McNatt's All-America honor was the first of two in his career, while Drake went on to become a member of the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame.

24-7 Overall Record
2-1 NCAA Tournament Record
Coached by Bruce Drake

Bruce Drake's second Final Four team was his best OU squad. Led by Helms Foundation National Player of the Year Gerald Tucker, the 1946-47 Sooners featured several World War II veterans and raced to a then-school-record 24 victories (the previous high was 19). OU survived its first two NCAA Tournament games by a combined three points to reach the national championship game. It squeaked by Oregon State in the NCAA Western Regional semifinals by a 56-54 score in Kansas City, and the next night edged Texas, 55-54, thanks to Ken Pryor's two-handed jumper from the left wing with just seconds remaining. The national title game, held at New York's Madison Square Garden, pitted OU against Holy Cross. The Crusaders, led by tournament most outstanding player George Kaftan, notched a 58-47 victory.

35-4 Overall Record
5-1 NCAA Tournament Record
Coached by Billy Tubbs

Perhaps the best team in school history and certainly one of the most exciting, the 1987-88 Sooners set numerous school records that still stand, including wins (35) and points per game (102.9). Coached by the brash and unrelenting Billy Tubbs, OU featured three players that earned All-America honors either that season or the next in senior Harvey Grant and juniors Mookie Blaylock and Stacey King. MVP of the Southeast Regional, King averaged 25.3 points and 8.7 rebounds in OU's six NCAA Tournament games. The Sooners beat UT Chattanooga, Auburn, Louisville and Villanova to advance to the Final Four in Kansas City. There, they downed fellow No. 1 seed Arizona, 86-78, before losing in the national championship game to No. 6 seed Kansas, 83-79. The halftime score in the 50th national title game was 50-50.

31-5 Overall Record
4-1 NCAA Tournament Record
Coached by Kelvin Sampson

Kelvin Sampson coached 12 seasons at OU and took 11 of his teams to the NCAA Tournament. His 2001-02 squad was his most talented. Behind junior guard Hollis Price and senior forward Aaron McGhee, OU finished the regular season 24-5 before winning three Big 12 Tournament games to capture its second of three straight titles (it defeated a No. 1-ranked Kansas team in the championship game that was 18-0 against league foes). From there, No. 2 seed OU beat Illinois-Chicago and Xavier in the first two rounds of the NCAA Tournament in Dallas, Texas. OU dominated No. 3 seed Arizona, 88-67, in the Sweet 16 in San Jose, Calif., and held off No. 12 seed Missouri, 81-75, in the Elite Eight. The seven-game postseason winning streak ended in the Final Four in Atlanta, Ga., as No. 5 seed Indiana pulled a 73-64 upset.

29-8 Overall Record
4-1 NCAA Tournament Record
Coached by Lon Kruger

Head coach Lon Kruger led the Sooners to a 29-8 record in 2015-16, capped by a trip to the program's fifth Final Four. The Sooners were ranked in the AP Poll's top 10 in every week of the season, eventually entering the tournament field as a No. 2 seed. Playing in the friendly confines of Chesapeake Energy Arena in Oklahoma City for the opening two rounds, the Sooners advanced against CSU Bakersfield (82-68) and VCU (85-81). OU then headed west to Anaheim, Calif., to fight past Texas A&M in the Sweet 16, 77-63, and top-seeded Oregon, 80-68, in the Elite Eight. The Sooners fell in the national semifinal to eventual-champion Villanova at NRG Stadium in Houston, 95-51. OU's 2015-16 run was fueled by consensus national player of the year Buddy Hield, who was joined in the starting five by Isaiah Cousins, Khadeem Lattin, Ryan Spangler and Jordan Woodard in every game of the season.

2024-25 MEDIA POLICIES

Priority for media credentials will be given to outlets that regularly cover OU basketball. National media outlets will also receive consideration.

Courtside media access will be granted on a game-by-game basis to photographers and videographers who regularly cover OU men's basketball.

Photographers and videographers may be granted access on the mid concourse level as availability and current conditions allow. There will be no catwalk access for photographers.

Credentials will only be granted on a single-game basis.

MEDIA SEATING

Media seating for the 2024-25 season will be in the upper media section 207 (previously section W4), as instituted in 2020-21. The media area features three rows of tables and work areas. Media seating will be spread out in the section. Game notes and other printed materials will be available in the media work room.

MEDIA WORK ROOM

The Lloyd Noble Center media work room will be available to all media members for the 2024-25 season.

CREDENTIAL REQUESTS

Credential requests should be made to Brent Beerends via email (beerends@ou.edu) no later than 48 hours before each game. Organizations may request single-game credentials for the entire season, but requests will be evaluated on a game-by-game basis. The home SID will distribute an email at least 24 hours before each game to notify your organization which media members will be issued a credential.

PARKING

Media members should park on the southeast side of the arena. No pass or payment is required.

MEDIA ENTRANCE

Credentials for OU home games may be picked up in the tunnel entrance beginning two hours prior to tipoff.

Photo identification is required for pickup. Each media representative must claim his or her pass (no group pickups are allowed).

NBA SCOUTS

Media credentials will be issued on a limited basis to NBA scouts for the 2024-25 season. If the credential allotment is filled, tickets may be requested based upon availability.

INTERVIEW POLICY

All in-week and postgame interviews will be conducted in-person this season.

Non-postgame interviews with players or coaches must be arranged through Brent Beerends (beerends@ou.edu) and requested at least 24 hours in advance of the desired interview time.

Only postgame interviews are allowed on game days.

VISITING RADIO

Visiting radio crews are positioned next to their team's bench, on the north end of the east sideline.

POOL REPORTER POLICY

Any questions from the media directed to officials, Coordinators of Officials or Conference Sport Administrators should contact the respective Conference sport communications contact.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

Postgame press conferences will return to the postgame media room located across from the media work room. Video and audio files will be distrubuited to local media after the conclusion of the press conference.

RADIO BROADCAST TALENT

TOBY ROWLAND
Play-by-Play
14th Season

Toby Rowland is in his 14th season as the "Voice of the Sooners." He handles radio play-by-play for OU football, men's basketball and baseball, and also hosts the Porter Moser, Jennie Baranczyk and Brent Venables weekly radio shows. Rowland also serves as host for a wide variety of programming on the SEC Network.

A two-time Emmy Award winner, Rowland spent 12 years as a sports anchor, reporter and producer at KWTV in Oklahoma City. He won the Oklahoma Association of Broadcasters Award for best sportscast and the Society of Professional Journalists Award for Best Sports Reporting. Rowland became a household name in Oklahoma as host of the award-winning "Friday Football Blitz," taking high school football coverage to a new level in the state.

Rowland's play-by-play résumé includes serving as the "Voice of Southern Nazarene University" football, basketball and baseball, and as "Voice of the Norman Tigers." Rowland also was a part of the Oklahoma RedHawks broadcast team for one season.

For the past 21 years Rowland has also hosted the "T-Row in the Morning Show" on KREF SportsTalk 1400.

A 1995 graduate of Southern Nazarene University, Toby is married to his college sweetheart, Jennifer. They have three children: sons Trevor and Payton, and daughter Chloe.

KEVIN HENRY
Color Analyst
Ninth Season

Kevin Henry enters his ninth season as color analyst for Sooner men's basketball. Henry began his time on the OU airwaves as an occasional color analyst on Sooner Sports TV in 2015-16.

A former Big 12 basketball player, Henry played collegiately at the University of New Mexico (1997-2000) before transferring to Baylor University (2000-02). Henry's single-season mark of 102 3-pointers in the 1998-99 season stood for 20 seasons.

When he's not on the air, Henry works for OMRF as the senior director of philanthropy.

Prior to his time at OMRF, Henry served as director of major gifts for the Sooner Club. He focused on philanthropic gifts for facility projects, scholarship endowments and planned gifts. Henry joined the OU athletics staff in the fall of 2015 and served as director community relations for two years.

Before joining the Sooners, Henry was the athletic director and boys basketball coach at Methodist Children's Home in Waco, Texas. In seven years as head coach, he guided the team to seven state final fours and three state championship games in the Texas Christian Athletic League. He was twice named coach of the year.

Henry holds an undergraduate degree from New Mexico and a master's in sports management from Baylor. His wife, Dr. Aiyana Henry, serves as an associate professor and associate dean for OU's Jeannine Rainbolt College of Education. The two are parents to Emma and Nash.

SOONER SPORTS NETWORK

University of Oklahoma men's basketball games air via Learfield and the Sooner Sports Radio Network. The network consists of stations throughout Oklahoma. OU fans may also catch the live broadcasts via The Varsity Network. Sirius satellite radio also carries most Sooner Network games.

Each Monday throughout the season, "Sooner Sports Talk" provides fans across the state an opportunity to talk OU basketball with head coaches Porter Moser and Jennie Baranczyk. The one-hour program airs statewide from 7-8 p.m. on the Sooner Radio Network and is streamed on SEC Network+. In partnership with Griffin Media, SST will re-air on News 9 and KSBI in Oklahoma City.

2024-25 MARKS OKLAHOMA'S INAUGURAL YEAR IN SEC

A pioneer in the integration of higher education and athletic competition, the Southeastern Conference is a leader on the national landscape for intercollegiate athletics in the 21st century.

Since its formation in 1933, the SEC has achieved stature and stability by designating governing/voting power to the presidents of the member institutions. These university leaders determine the policies of the conference and through the years this involvement has been the principal source of strength in the evolution of the SEC. Throughout its 82-year history, the SEC has provided leadership on the vital issues facing intercollegiate competition.

Alabama, Auburn, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, LSU, Mississippi, Mississippi State, Tennessee and Vanderbilt have been in the SEC since its formation in 1933. The league has expanded three times, adding Arkansas and South Carolina in 1991, then Missouri and Texas A&M in 2012, then Oklahoma and Texas on July 1, 2024.

SEC schools began athletic competition with one another more than 120 years ago as members of the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association. Seven institutions (Alabama, Auburn, Georgia, Georgia Tech, North Carolina, Sewanee and Vanderbilt) attended the SIAA organizational meeting of faculty representatives, called by Dr. William L. Dudley of Vanderbilt, in Atlanta Dec. 22, 1894.

The first SEC champions were crowned in 1933 in baseball, basketball, football and outdoor track. The league's inaugural championship event was a basketball tournament in Atlanta, Feb. 24-28, 1933. Records show the first men's team title for cross country was awarded in 1935, while golf and swimming were added in 1937. The league later began hosting championships in tennis (1938) and indoor track (1957).

In the 1979-80 academic year SEC championships for women were recognized in basketball, tennis and volleyball. The following year golf, gymnastics, swimming and track & field were added. Soccer was added in 1993 and softball began SEC play in 1997. The administration of women's athletics officially came under the auspices of the conference office on Sept. 1, 1984.

In 1993, the member institutions adopted The Principles of Gender Equity. Committed to increasing the quantity and quality of women's athletics opportunities, each school provides at least two more women's intercollegiate programs than the number of men's teams on each campus.

The conference approved equestrian as its 21st sponsored sport for the 2012-13 academic year. The SEC currently regulates nine men's sports and 12 women's sports.

Men's sports: baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, swimming, tennis, and indoor and outdoor track and field; Women's sports: basketball, cross country, equestrian, golf, gymnastics, soccer, softball, swimming, tennis, indoor and outdoor track and volleyball.
